

CALIFORNIA TRANSPARENCY IN SUPPLY CHAINS ACT OF 2010

Weaver Popcorn Company, Inc. supports the California Transparency in Supply Chains Act of 2010. We require our suppliers to comply with all laws and regulations, including those relating to human trafficking in any form. These requirements are specifically stated in the Company's Purchase Order Terms and Conditions with its suppliers.

Weaver Popcorn Company, Inc. monitors its supply chain to consider risks and compliance with both applicable laws and the Company's policies and standards. We do not use third parties to conduct such review. We do not routinely conduct independent, unannounced audits of our suppliers but may do so if we have cause to believe they are not in compliance. The Company requires its suppliers to warrant that goods comply with the laws regarding slavery and human trafficking. Our stated policies together with the Purchase Order Terms and Conditions clearly communicate to suppliers that we will not do business with them if they fail to adhere to such laws. The Company's standards and values are incorporated into all training of employees and managers who have responsibility for supply chain management.
